Subject Letter of inquiry from Greek Consulate General regarding Police records of certain persons.

Made by D.S. Jones Forwarded by DBLass D.

With reference to the letter dated November 26, 1935 from the Acting Consul General for Greece addressed to the Commissioner of Police on the subject of two Greek subjects named KARRAS and SARIDIS and a former Shanghai resident named SAM NEWHOUSE, I have to state that there is a record of a Greek named ATHANAS KAARAS alias CORAS. If due allowance is made for the difference in spelling it would seem that this man is the ATHANASSIOS KARRAS whose name appears in the said letter.

KAARAS is known to be a smuggler of Persian and Turkish opium and morphine into Shanghai. His address is given as No. 7A Miller Road and he was formerly connected with the BUSY BEE Greek grocery shop in Hongkew Market. The age of this man is roughly 26 years: he arrived in Shanghai during the year 1931.

The record of THEODORE SARIDIS is as follows:

Armed Highway Robbery: 29/6/28 sentenced to 15 years' imprisonment; to loss of civil rights; and to a fine of $6,000 - to be paid to complainant. On 8/2/29 this sentence was reduced to 4 years and the civil action dismissed. He was released on remission of sentence 3/10/31.

Receiving Stolen Property: 22/1/33 fined $200 or 100 days' imprisonment (Fine paid).

Possession of Opium for Sale: For this offence he was sentenced on 15/6/33 to 1 year and six months imprisonment and fined $200 or 100 days. On 28/7/33, while still in Gaol, SARIDIS was brought before the Court to answer a charge of shopbreaking in Tientsin on February 15, 1933. The offences were combined and sentence changed to 2 years and six months and a fine of $200 or 100 days. Provided SARIDIS pays this fine he will be released on December 30, 1935.

The only passport among the property of SRIDIS held by the Gaol against his release is one issued him by the Bureau of Public Safety at Hankow on November 21, 1931; valid for one year only. On this passport he is described as a merchant, born at Trafegond. His date of arrival in Hankow is given as November 14, 1931 and his address as - New York Restaurant, No. 8 Erh Yao Road, Hankow.

SAM NEWHOUSE: Nothing has been heard of this individual in recent years. On January 31, 1916 he was arrested in Shanghai on a British warrant issued under the "Defence of the Realm Act." He claimed to be a citizen of Brazil, and as this claim was upheld by the Brazilian Consul in Shanghai at that time, he was released. His Consul undertook to deport him to Brazil before the conclusion of the Great War. In the summer of 1916 he was heard of in San Francisco, at which port he was in the habit of visiting ships from China. It is not on record whether he was deported to Brazil, or whether he left Shanghai of his own free will.

REPORT ON Mrs. Rose Loggey.

Made by D. S. Givens.

Forwarded by Chief Detective Inspector

Sir,

Mrs. Rose Loggey moved into the Kalee Hotel on 13th instant. and left again on 15th inst. She said at the Kalee Hotel that she had come from the Astor House, but inquiries go to show that this statement was untrue. Her description answers that of a prostitute, a Mrs. Newhouse, who has been in houses of ill fame in both Shanghai, Hankow and Tientsin. Her husband, Samuel Newhouse, was arrested on January 31st 1916 on a British warrant issued under the "Defence of the Realm Act." He succeeded in proving that he was a Brazilian subject and was consequently set free, but his Consul promised to deport him from China during the duration of the war. Newhouse was in San Francisco last summer, when he used to visit the ships arriving from China.

I have been unable to ascertain for certain if Mrs Rose Loggey and Mrs Newhouse are identical. The latter is said to be a clever and unscrupulous woman. She is Russian by birth, but lived a great part of her life in Vienna. She speaks Russian, German and English.

Sir,

Mrs. Rose Loggey moved into the Kalee Hotel on 13th instant, saying she had come from the Astor House. Enquiries at the latter place go to show that she never stayed there. She is believed to be a prostitute, but I have not yet got particulars of her antecedents. As far as I can learn, she is not the person who interested herself on behalf of Samuel Newhouse, the file about whom I am attaching.

I would respectfully suggest that Mrs Loggey be questioned re her movements anterior to the 13th instant. I would like to make further inquiries before passing an opinion as to whether it would be advisable to give her a passport or not.

Samuel Newhouse was in San Francisco last summer, when he used to visit the ships arriving from China.

Miss Kitty Lyall, Maiden name Kitty Stainfield, was born in Hongkong where her mother kept a boarding-house. Has one brother who was in the B. A. T. but whose present whereabouts are unknown and one sister Hetty (married). There are three branches of the family and most of them are known for their loose morals. A couple of local girls named Stirling are cousins of Miss Lyall and another cousin is married to one of the Brown family, (well known Shanghai athletes).

Miss Lyall has been an inmate of Kiangse Road brothels for about seven years. She has been mistress of at least two houses and an inmate of several others. She has toured Europe with Shanghai gentlemen whose names it is better not to mention and lived in Shanghai under the protection of others. She has led a very hectic life, been in serious motor car accidents, attempted suicide, etc.,etc. She was at one time reputed to be a drug taker.

She was first married to a man named Loggey, but is believed to have divorced him. At any rate she went through a form of marriage in Africa with a man who came to Shanghai as a traveller for a well known armaments firm and on arrival in England was arrested for bigamy and only escaped severe punishment through being able to produce proof that a firm of Shanghai lawyers had led her to believe that her marriage to Loggey had been dissolved. Aphaniacy D. Karrass, a Greek citizen, is known among the local Russian gamblers and thieves as "Karras", which means Arusian in Russian. He appeared in Shanghai several years ago presumably from Harbin and became a notorious gambler in local Russian gambling circles. He and a Russian Jew by the name of Ginsburg, better known as "Little" Ginsburg have several times opened gambling dens for playing "Chemine de fer" and other card games. So far as the informer can remember the last den was raided by S. M. P. some time in 1934 and both Karrass and Ginsburg were arrested. They probably have their photo and finger prints and other particulars. It is also known that Karrass have a habit to meet Italian and German steamers and take delivery of pistols and ammunitions, which were brought up here by the members of the crew. However, the trade was not very profitable as the most he could dispose off was one or two at a time. There is no evidence that Karrass ever engaged in narcotics trade, but according to the informer, he is a type of man who could do it in a small scale as gambler always has no money. A few months ago Karrass was hanging around at "Astoria Cafe" to do his business there, but now he has disappeared from that place. he owes the proprietor about 50 dollars which he has consumed in tea and coffee. The proprietor, K. Dimitriadis, is reported to be one of the few honest Greeks in Shanghai. Lately Karrass is hanging around at "Bosfor" Cafe situated at 582/1 Avenue Joffre. It is a dirty small dining room owned by a notorious "fence" Volodka Greek and frequented by local Russian pick-pockets shop-lifter, etc. Karrass seems to be penniless at present and is now supported by the owner of Bosfor as he is helping the latter to arrange card games with the successful thieves.

Shanghai, Oct. 5th, 1936.

Judge Yih,
Shanghai Special District Court,
Court No.2.
Shanghai

Your Honour:

Subject A.D.Karras

I have the honour to charge the above Greek subject before your Honourable Court, for threatening to assault me, using insulting expression, making unreasonable demands for money and treatment and for causing a disturbance at my office.

At about 10 o'clock this morning Karras called at this Consulate General and clearly threatened to assault me "if he could get me outside" the Consulate premises.

I had to telephone to the Police for assistance and the Police will inform the Court that he was only removed from my office with great difficulty and not before he threatened to destroy property of the Consulate.

The accused were originally a sailor but deserted his steamer in Vladivostock early in 1927. He arrived in Shanghai in July 1927 and has ever since made his residence in China. I attach his Police record for reference.

Some four or five months ago he assaulted another person (a Greek subject named Constantinidis) and was arrested by the Police of the French Concession and charged before the Second District Court.

Some three or four years ago he assaulted another person (also a Greek subject by the name of Moatsos) and a record of this case should be available at the Boone Road Branch Police Station.

With considerable difficulty I have been able to enlist him as a sailor on the Greek s.s. "EVGENIA CHANDRIS" last July, hoping that in this way, I would obtain his repatriation to Greece. To my surprise he returned to Shanghai late last month without a regular visa, claiming that he has been ill and that he was sent by the Japanese Police of Yamatsu to my Consulate.

I have immediately arranged and obtained for him free medical and hospital treatment at the Shanghai General Hospital and have since been trying to communicate with his steamer to ascertain the cause of his departure or dismissal as he has returned to Shanghai without his Seaman's Book, which of itself is irregular.

In the meantime Karras has refused the free Hospital treatment offered him insisting that I should provide for him funds and a Doctor of his own choice. When his demands were refused he commenced to threaten and caused the trouble for which I am now charging him before your Honourable Court.

I hope that an example will be made of this case and that after punishment it will please the Court to deport him to Greece as an undesirable alien, at this Consulate General's expense.

I have the honour to be your Honour,

Your obedient servants

Emm. P. Yannoulatos

Acting Consul General
for Greece

The Central Police Station vs D.A. D. Karras.

Judgment:

A.D.Karras was sentenced to three months' imprisonment for uttering threats of violence against other one. After serving his sentence, he should be expelled from the country.

Facts:

A.D.Karras, recently reaching Shanghai from Japan, went to the Greek Consulate for the demand of medical treatment. The Greek Consul arranged and obtained for him free medical and hospital treatment. But Karras insisted that the Consul should provide for him funds and a doctor of his own choice. This was refused by the Consul. On 5th inst. at about 10 o'clock a.m. Karras again went to the Greek Consulate, 120, Jinkoo Road, and asked for money, but this was still refused by the Consul. Then the defendant became unruly threatening the Consul Yannoulatos. The latter telephoned to the Central Police Station, officers from which took Karras into custody and brought an action against him to this Court.

Reasons:

According to the fact of this case, althought the defendant denied to use threats against the Consul, but his unlawful action had not only been proved by the Consul's representative, but also it was clearly stated in the Consul's petition. Furthermore, a witness named G. Stamatelatos attesting to this Court said that the defendant had such an unlawful action. The defendant, therefore, cannot deny. This Court now applying to the Article 305 of the Criminal Code sentence the defendant to three months' imprisonment. On account of the defendant's former bad acts (which was stated in the Consul's letter and the Police Station's record) he should be expelled from the Country after serving his sentence. According to the Article 291 of the Criminal Procedure Law, the Court give the above judgment.

Threat Against Consul Lands Greek In Jail

Stoker Talks In Parable When Questioned By Court

Athanassis Dimitrios Karras, age 27, Greek stoker, charged with threatening Mr. E. P. Yannoulatos, acting Greek Consul-General in Shanghai, was sentenced to three months' imprisonment by the First Special District Court yesterday morning. After he has completed his sentence, he will be deported from the country and sent back to Greece.

Karras was arrested by police attached to the Central Station shortly before noon Monday on a complaint lodged by Mr. Yannoulatos. According to the latter, Karras had come to his office during the morning and made unreasonable demand for medical treatment. These were refused whereupon Karras was stated to have threatened the official.

When brought into court yesterday, Karras claimed that the reason he had been arrested was because the Consul-General had a grudge against him for political reasons. He pleaded with the court to send him to a hospital and to let him bring witnesses to state his case. His requests were refused. The court remarked that he didn't look like a sick man.

"You may look at the skin of a fruit and it may appear quite good to eat, but perhaps there is a worm inside that you cannot see," said the accused. "I have stomach trouble, kidney trouble and rheumatism."

Representatives of the Greek consulate and Detective Sergeant Francis, the latter of Central Station, testified against the accused. They gave evidence to the effect that he had created a disturbance and explained that the Consul-General wanted the man sent out of the country. It was brought out that he had been sent home early this year but that he had returned some time ago.

"The consul is too small to send me to Greece," said the man. "There's someone behind me, don't you worry."

Karras then explained that he had money coming from the captain of his ship. "Ask the consul to telegraph the captain of the ship and ask him why he hasn't

Greek Consul Is Threatened By Stoeker

Will Be Brought Before 1st Special Court Today

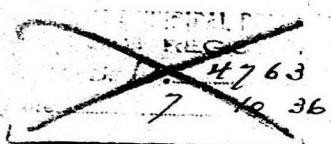

Because he walked into the office of the Greek Consulate-General, 120 Jinkoo Road, yesterday morning and made a series of threats against Mr. E. P. Yannoulatos, acting Consul-General for Greece, A.D. Karras, ship's fireman, will be brought before the First Special District Court this morning and charged under the Chinese Criminal Code with having uttered threats in contravention to family laws.

Karras, a Greek, resides in the French Concession. He was sent out of Shanghai early this year through the efforts of the Consulate-General but returned a few months ago. According to the Consulate, he was recently given free medical treatment at a local hospital, but this, it appears, left him unsatisfied.

He appeared at the Consulate-General yesterday morning and made unreasonable demands, it was stated, for more expensive medical treatment. His demands are said to have been refused whereupon he is alleged to have become unruly, threatening the acting Consul-General. The latter proceeded at once to call the Central Police Station.

Police were sent to the Consulate-General and Karras was taken to the station for questioning. He was still being held last night and will make his appearance in court at about 9 a.m. today.

Greek Given Gaol Term For Threats To Consul

Seaman Allegedly Demanded Money For Medical Expenses Instead Of Agreeing To Be Sent To Hospital; Bears Grudge Against Consul.

Athanasios Dimitriou Karras, 27-year-old Greek seaman, was sentenced to three months' imprisonment by the First Special District Court yesterday upon being found guilty of uttering threats of violence against Mr. E. P. Yannoulatos, acting Consul-General for Greece, at his office at 120 Jinkee Road, on Monday morning.

The trial was very short and Karras objected very strongly at being given no chance to obtain the services of a lawyer or to prove his case by calling witnesses on his own behalf. Karras used strong words against the acting Consul-General for Greece, stating that the Consul was "no good," that he would write to Greece about him and that the local Greek community was against their Consul.

Karras also claimed that the Greek official had a grudge against him for political reasons and begged the court to send him to hospital for treatment. All these requests were, however, denied the accused and immediately after hearing the evidence of a representative of Mr. Yannoulatos, the judge pronounced the sentence.

Several members of the local Greek community appeared in court after the trial and expressed strong feeling at hearing that the seaman had been sentenced.

Police Called

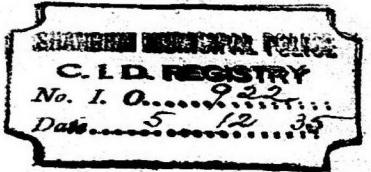

Evidence was given in court by a representative of the Greek official and by Detective Sergeant Francis of Central Police Station. Witnesses stated that the Consul wished to have Karras deported.

The court, however, stated that it had no right to do so. Karras claimed that he asked the acting Consul-General for hospital expenses, but was refused.

The prosecution, however, contended that the official offered to put Karras in the General Hospital, but that the latter refused and wanted cash instead. Karras contended that he had money coming from the ship he worked on and he asked Mr. Yannoulatos to advance him money against this. He also asked the court to instruct the Consul-General to telegraph the captain of his ship and ascertain if this was not correct.

Karras complained in a loud tone when sentenced. When informed that he could appeal he pointed out that he had no friends here.

Mr. Yannoulatos was represented by Mr. M. Shikis.

Sir,

I have the honour to refer to your letter No. 916 dated November 26, 1935, and to state that the records in possession of the Municipal Police of Athanassios Karras, Theodore Saridis and Sam Newhouse are as follows :-

*x Also see Crime
Reg. file E.473
(E.S.4763.)*

Athanassios Karras. The Municipal Police have a record of a Greek subject named Athanas Kaaras alias Coras, who is probably identical with Athanassios Karras. Athanas Kaaras is about 26 years of age, and arrived in Shanghai during 1931. He used to reside at No.7A Miller Road and was formerly connected with the Busy Bee Greek Grocery Shop in Hongkew Market. He is known to the Police as a smuggler of Persian and Turkish opium and morphine into Shanghai.

Theodore Saridis. Saridis has the following criminal record :-

Armed highway robbery : On 29-6-28 he was sentenced to 15 years' imprisonment for this offence. He was also deprived of his civil rights and ordered to pay a fine of $6,000 to the complainant. On 8-2-29 the sentence was reduced to 4 years and the civil action was dismissed. He was released on remission of sentence on 3-10-31.

Receiving stolen property : Saridis was on 22-1-33 fined $100 or 100 days' imprisonment for this offence. He paid the fine.

Possession of opium for sale : For this offence Saridis was sentenced on 15-6-33 to 1 year and 6 months' imprisonment and a fine of $100 or 100 days' imprisonment. While in the gaol Saridis was brought before the Court to answer a charge of shopbreaking in Tientsin on February 15, 1933. The punishment for the two offences was combined and the sentence was changed to 2 years and 6 months' imprisonment and a fine of $100 or 100 days. Provided Saridis pays this fine he will be released on December 30, 1935.

Saridis is in possession of a passport which is now being held by the Gaol Authority pending his release. This passport was issued by the Bureau of Public Safety at Hankow on 21-11-31 and was valid for one year. In this document he is described as a merchant, born at Trafegond; arrived in Hankow on 14-11-31 and his address was New York Restaurant, No. 8 Erh Yao Road, Hankow.

Sam Newhouse. This man was arrested on 31-1-16 in Shanghai on a British Court warrant issued under the "Defence of the Realm Act". He was however released as he claimed Brazilian nationality. The Brazilian Consul undertook to deport him before the conclusion of the Great War. In the Summer of 1916 he was reported to be in San Francisco where he was in the habit of visiting ships from China. It is not on record whether he was deported to Brazil or whether he left Shanghai of his own free will. Nothing has been heard of this individual in recent years.
